Assignment

L-9 The Story of Fidgety Philip

Q.1) What did Philip's father want to see?

Ans: Philip's father wanted to see him to be like a little gentleman and behave well as he sat at the dinner table.

Q.2) Why was his tone 'earnest'?

Ans: The tone was 'earnest' because Philip's father was setting an example for his son. He wanted his son to behave earnestly as well, so he spoke with him in the same manner.

Q.3) How did Philip's mother react when he saw him misbehave?

Ans: When Philip's mother saw him misbehave she fretted and frowned.

Q.4) What happened when Philip became rude and wild?

Ans: Philip didn't sit still and twisted and turned and giggled; swung backward and forward; tilted up his chair like a rocking horse. Soon, because of his wild behavior his chair fell down along with him.

Q.5) How did the matter get worse?

Ans: The matter got worse when Philip fell and caught the table cloth with him. When he did so, everything fell with the table cloth- the glasses, knives and forks. By the end of it, Philip was covered by the heap of things that had fallen down.

Q.6) Where was Philip once he fell?

Ans: Philip was on the ground with the table cloth and everything on it was lying over him.
